Dear Michelle,

If you've been with Actors Gymnasium for awhile, its easy to forget those first magical feelings when you found our community. For many of our students, The Actors Gymnasium is their happy place.

"Since both me and my daughter have taken classes at The Actors Gymnasium, [circus] is another thing that we can share and bond over." - Single Dad

"I want to go to college. I have learned a lot of new things that could be helpful for later on in life, such as focus, concentration, and the determination of trying something over and over again until you get it right." Teen

Please help share that Actors Gymnasium magic with those who need it the most.

It costs $200 per student (or $25 per week) to help someone Learn to Fly - physically, creatively and emotionally.

Will you pay for one week of magic?
